Livesmart work with a range of corporate clients to provide both for individual employees who have been relocated and for their visiting executives. We are constantly exploring new ways of working with corporate clients and can provide a range of quality accommodation with flexible levels of service.

What can we do for the individual?

If you are relocating because of work commitments or personal circumstances we can meet your accommodation needs for the short or long term.

Our accommodation is available part or fully furnished and is ready to move into.

Visiting executives

We can provide quality accommodation for use by your visiting executives and clients. The properties are all available fully furnished and a cleaning service can be provided between occupations. This can provide a more cost effective and flexible approach to that of traditional method of hotels.

Relocation packages

Employees relocating to an area may not wish to commit to the purchase of a property immediately and will seek suitable rented accommodation. We can offer prestigious and stylish apartments either fully or partially furnished for tenancies either to the individual employee or for use by the employer as temporary accommodation.
